

Did you know?

Grass clippings are 75-80 % water by weight. When left on the lawn, clippings quickly dry up and shrink to a fraction of their original size. They then filter down to the ground and release valuable nitrogen back into the soil.

SEND YOUR GRASS BACK TO ITS ROOTS!

brought to you by...

